Report of Committee of State Labour Ministers

2730. SHRI ALADI ARUNA ALIAS V. ARUNACHALAM: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Ministry of Labour has received the report of a committee of State Labour Ministers constituted in 1983; and

(b) if so. what are the details of the recommendations of the committee ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): (a) As decided in the Labour Ministers' Confrerence held in September, 1983 a Group of State Labour Ministers was set up in the year 1983 to go into the question of:

(i) what should be the minimum age for child labour; and

(ii) whether we should have a comprehensive law governing child labour and if so what should be the outline for such laws.

The Government have received the recommendations submitted by the Group.

(b) The brief details of the recommendations are as follows: —

1. Minimum a, age of the entry into em ployment for children.

The Group was of the view that it would be inappropriate under the present conditions to recommend a uniform minimum age for entry into employment for all trades or industries.

2. Gradual elimination of child Labour and comprehensive legislation.

The Group felt that it is not practical to have a single comprehensive legislation to cover all aspects of working in different industries. However, the Group recommended legislation covering the following aspects: —

(i) Non-formal education of the working child.

(ii) Compulsory medic al check up and health care.

(iii) Skill Development Training.

(iv) Arrangement for transport of working children.

(v) Organisational support.

(vi) Integration with ongoing programmes.

(vii> Contribution to Provident Fund.
